ELTC Announces New Employee Hired in Key Position

FORT COLLINS, CO – Nonprofit Education & Life Training Center (ELTC) announces that Paul Batchelder has been hired by the Fort Collins-based nonprofit as Computer Instructor, joining ELTC's growing computer and technology program training staff.

Paul brings with him more than 12 years working within the technology and customer service field. His expertise includes system administration supervision and support, as well as computer and software training. Paul holds a BS degree in Business Administration from Colorado State University, and multiple computer-related technical certifications including CCNA and ITIL. In his new role, he will be responsible for instruction in two key program areas - ELTC's Office Administration Computer Training Program and the A+ Certification Preparation Program.

Paul can be reached by calling 970.482.4357. For more information about ELTC, visit the website at www.eltcenter.org.

At the Education & Life Training Center we envision a community where all are empowered to succeed through education. Our mission is to successfully mentor, train, and add to the skill sets of individuals needing to financially and / or personally transition upward in a way that is relevant, meaningful and immediately useful to their livelihood. ELTC offers employment skills and transitions training and support, as well as language and literacy coursework, to our community.
